Recovering from Illness.

Frank C. Merrill, a local newspaperman, who has been ill at his boarding place on Windham street since the middle day of the fair last week, is somewhat improved, although still unable to be out of his room. He was threatened with typhoid fever.

Attending Aunt's Funeral.

Rev. Otto Beaumeister, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church, left Tuesday evening for Paterson, N. J., to attend the funeral of an aunt who died there Tuesday. This is the second aunt Father Beaumeister has lost within six months. He expects to return to Willimantic Saturday evening.

OBITUARY.

Charles H. Edmonds.

Charles Henry Edmonds, aged 51, died at his home, 1009 Main street, Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, after several months' illness with Bright's disease. He was a native of the town of Windham and had lived in Willimantic all his life except for a period of two years that he lived in Mansfield. He was a valued employee of the American Thread company, being employed for that concern for more than thirty years. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias, the American Benefit society and the American Thread company's fire brigade. There survive a widow, a son, Harry R., and a daughter, Miss Grace Edmonds, all of this city.

Mrs. Lucy P. Hoyt.

Mrs. Lucy Peabody Hoyt of Windham died at the Roosevelt hospital, New York, Tuesday morning, due to heart failure following an operation. The body arrived here on the afternoon train Wednesday. Deceased leaves one brother, ex-Secretary C. W. Peabody of Windham and three sisters, Mrs. Mary J. Howard of Springfield, Mass., Mrs. P. D. Smith of Bridgeport and Mrs. Frank O. Painter of Middletown.

Firemen's Social.

The firemen's social, at the Casino, Lakeside park, Lake Wampanoag, South Coventry, Wednesday evening, was a most enjoyable affair and was very largely attended. The social and dance was given under the auspices of Hilltop hose company, No. 2, W. F. D., and many of the guests present were firemen from the three other companies of the city department in full uniform. Music for the occasion was furnished by Wheeler's orchestra.

The committee in charge of the function are to be congratulated upon the manner in which everything was carried through so successfully.

Pleasant Kitchen Social.

Wednesday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church on Church street an exceptionally pleasant evening was passed by a large number of the parishioners and their friends. The evening was provided for the ladies and was styled a kitchen social, and it certainly did not belie its name and kept one constantly thinking of that busy place in every home.

Refreshments were served during the evening and the affair was pronounced a big success. The ladies in charge of the arrangements and details of the enjoyable entertainment were tendered many compliments for their ingenuity.

Russians, Not Poles.

John Smigorski, who acts as court interpreter, denied the statements regarding the nationality of the families in which the deaths of infants have occurred in this city as the result of too warm baths causing the little ones to be scalded to death. Mr. Smigorski states that from the fact that many people speak Polish the general public immediately draws the conclusion that this is their nationality. He advances the claim that in two instances the parents of the scalded infants were Russians. While the dividing line between these people may seem a bit ill defined by Americans, the Polish people claim a separate and distinct nationality, and as a matter of fact, there is, therefore, undoubtedly some injustice done in the thoughtless confusion of this country with other nations.

Visitor from South Africa.

Miss Anna E. Bliss, president of the Huguenot college, Wellington, South Africa, is visiting Miss M. E. Palmer at Levy G. Perkins' Corners.

Coventry road. Miss Palmer, who is a sister of Mrs. Perkins, was for nearly seventeen years a teacher in the Huguenot seminary, which was the parent of the Huguenot college, and was for some years vice principal of the seminary. This institution, with its allied branches, has done a great work for South Africa. The friends, co-workers who labored for so many years, are endeavoring a fine visit together, reviewing work done in the past and present and discussing plans for the future enlargement of the institution.

Malicious Vandalism.

Capt. E. H. Richmond of the police was called upon late Wednesday afternoon to investigate a petty case of vandalism that was perpetrated by some mischievously inclined person or persons. C. E. Little, janitor of the First Congregational church, chanced to notice that the three front doors of the church were beset about the knobs and locks with common white plaster, presumably taken from some building in process of construction, and plastered over the three doors in the places named, even filling up the keyholes. The appearance of the handsome edifice was greatly marred temporarily and the blotches attracted considerable attention all day Wednesday.

Captain Richmond and Mr. Little looked over the work of the vandals at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening and the captain is investigating the matter.

Personals.

A. H. Hosmer of lower Main street spent Wednesday in Hartford.

D. P. Comptois and party attended the fair at Rockville Wednesday.

State Policeman Robert T. Hurley of Hartford was in the city Wednesday.

Henry Dunham and Miss Annette Barrows attended the Rockville fair Wednesday.

First Selectman S. Arnold Peckham and family motored to the Brooklyn fair Wednesday.

Drs. M. M. Maine and G. W. May of South Manchester were Willimantic visitors Wednesday.

Constable William J. Hastings attended the fair at Rockville Wednesday in company with some of the other politicians.

David O. Mathewson motored from his home in Mt. Hope to the fair in Rockville Wednesday, with a party of relatives and friends.

Anthony Hevren and daughter, Miss Ray, of Jackson street were in Waterbury Wednesday, attending the funeral of Miss Anna Elizabeth Sugrue.

Prosecuting Attorney E. Frank Bugbee and Mrs. Bugbee and party attended the Rockville fair Wednesday.

The trip was made in Mr. Bugbee's touring car.

Miss Katherine Dyer, a nurse in training at St. Joseph's hospital, was called her home in Worcester on Wednesday afternoon, by the serious illness of her father.

Mayor Daniel P. Dunn attended the fair in Rockville with a number of other politicians, Wednesday, and is still going to witness the racing, in which a number of local horses were scheduled to start.

Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton was kept unusually busy Wednesday, passing hold in the chapter room at Slater library on Wednesday afternoon, with fourteen ladies present. The room was decorated with asters, dahlias, begonias and marigolds by Miss Martha Brewster, who was the hostess, and who, as regent, presided at the meeting. As Mrs. E. B. Buell of Litchfield, the state regent, was the guest of honor, no formal business was conducted.

Mrs. Buell gave a most interesting and instructive talk upon the various works of the D. A. R. in Connecticut. She first spoke of the D. A. R. Continental hall in Washington, saying that the D. A. R.'s of this state have given this last year $6,780 towards paying the debt on it and have paid $25,000 in all since its inception. The D. A. R.'s of this state have given $12,500 for educational purposes since their formation.

D. A. R. Chapter Entertains State Regent—Liquor Cases Heard in Town Court—Vote on License Assured.

The first fall meeting of Anne Brewster Fanning chapter, D. A. R., was held in the chapter room at Slater library on Wednesday afternoon, with fourteen ladies present. The room was decorated with asters, dahlias, begonias and marigolds by Miss Martha Brewster, who was the hostess, and who, as regent, presided at the meeting. As Mrs. E. B. Buell of Litchfield, the state regent, was the guest of honor, no formal business was conducted.

Educational Work.

Her report of the educational work among the southern whites was very interesting. Five thousand of these people are of American blood whose ancestors were in the revolutionary war. They are not educated, and are illiterate, but not degenerate. The different chapters have done much work in this line for these people. Another phase of the D. A. R. work is the Connecticut Branch of the Republic, at Litchfield, which is work among boys of bad tendencies, where they are governed by the same laws as cities.

History Clubs.

Several chapters have formed Connecticut history clubs for boys, where they learn local history and also that of the state. The D. A. R.'s have furthered the safe and sane Fourth of July, and the speakers placed much emphasis on the work the chapters might do towards the preservation of the flag—teaching its sacredness.

Book of Laws.

In speaking of the foreign population she said there were two things to do with them—expel them or educate them. As we need them and have made a splendid move in this way by putting out a Book of Laws, which includes all the laws an immigrant should know. She closed by saying that she considered the educational work for the Americans at present of more importance than erecting monuments for those of the past.

At the close of the talk the hostess served cake, ice cream and punch. She was assisted by Misses Elizabeth Whiting and Jean Burleson.

LIQUOR CASES

Heard on Wednesday Morning—Fine of $123 Paid by Mr. Lewis—Mr. Bedard's Case Continued.

In the town court Wednesday morning Ira P. Lewis was arraigned before Judge A. G. Brewster on two counts, reputation and keeping with intent to sell. Lewis demurred to the complaint. The demurrer was overruled and he was fined $50 and costs on each count, amounting to $123.

Felix Bedard was also charged with two actual sales, to which he pleaded not guilty. As some of the witnesses are in the western part of the state the case will not be tried until Sept. 30th. Mr. Bedard gave bonds of $200 for his appearance.

Town to Vote on License.

A petition of 91 of the legal voters of the town of Griswold has been filed at the office of the town clerk asking that the question of license, Yes or No, be decided at the election to be held the first Monday in October. The law requires that 10 per cent. of the legal voters shall sign such petition. Only 79 were necessary.

About the Borough.

Mrs. E. B. Cheney was the guest Wednesday of Mrs. Hermon Gager of North Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lillibridge and son, Daniel, of Packerville, were calling in the borough Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tift are enjoying a trip to Washington, Gettysburg and other famous battlefields.

Mrs. G. A. Haskell attended a meeting of the Mayflower club, held with Mrs. Osborne at Best View on the Thames, Wednesday.

Town Clerk Welsh received Wednesday a package of sample ballots such as are to be used in the coming town election, Oct. 3d. They are 14 by 7 1/2 inches. There are three columns—Republican, Democratic, and a blank column in which names may be written in case the elector wishes to vote for a name not appearing in either party column. A straight ticket is voted by making cross (X) in the circle above one of the party columns.

Tall Corn for Big Silo.

Simon Brewster has men at work filling his new silo with the finest crop of ensilage corn that has ever been cut in this section. The cut from one acre rod weighed 429 pounds. There are six acres of it, and it will easily average 25 tons to the acre. Thousands of stalks can be selected which are 14 feet in height, the average being 12 feet. A 12 foot stalk Wednesday pulled at random from a load weighed 21-2 pounds. The silo is a new one, 37 feet in diameter by 34 feet in height and will accommodate 150 tons of ensilage.

Recent guests at the home of the Misses Driscoll of North Main street were, J. Edward Driscoll and children, Mrs. John Driscoll and John Driscoll of Norwich Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrar of Norwich were guests Sunday of Mrs. John Willis, who is ill at her home on Green street.

CAMP IN OPERATION.

Middlesex County Tuberculosis Patients to Be Cared For.

The Middlesex County Tuberculosis Camp has been opened and already several patients are receiving treatment there. Four buildings have been constructed for the use of the patients, the camp being in charge of two competent nurses. In addition a physician makes daily visits to the place, in order to give each individual patient the necessary care. There is still room for a few more patients at the camp, and application can be made to any of the members of the executive committee for admission. Patients are expected to pay as much of the expense of maintenance as possible, but provision will be made for those who are unable to do so.

HEBREWS WANT SCHOOL.

Looking for Suitable Site in Ansonia on Which to Erect Such a Building.

G. Dziadik, of this place, says the Ansonia Sentinel, is looking for a suitable piece of land, on which he intends to build a school for his people. This is a large undertaking, but Mr. Dziadik seems to think that, with the help of a few of his race, it can be accomplished without much trouble. He intends to have it on the east side of the town if possible, and it is hoped by all of his people, as well as by many others, that he will secure the right grounds for his new school.

Natives of a number of South Pacific islands make fishhooks of mother of pearl, so bright that no bait or other lure is necessary.

Mrs. Russell Way died at her home on Norwich avenue Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sherlock returned Tuesday from their wedding trip in New York and New Jersey.

"DEUTSCHLAND" PROPOSED.

Novel Amusement and Business Project for New Britain.

The New Britain Herald has just set forth the plans of the enterprising citizens who would establish in New Britain on a large scale "Deutschland," a German wares market and recreation place that would become famous all over New England and should draw many people to New Britain for pleasure and profit.

The plans for the building of "Deutschland" call for a permanent exhibition of real German life and customs, where business and pleasure may be combined. Its promoters are enthusiastic and think their plans will attract attention throughout Connecticut. In fact they are already receiving state-wide recognition. The promoters anticipate not the slightest difficulty in raising all the capital that is needed. William T. Bonner originated the idea.

Find No Fault with the Water.

Chemists in the employ of the Housatonic company, who took samples of water from different houses about Suffield, for analysis, yesterday reported to Supt. J. P. H. de Windt that nothing of a serious nature could be found. The small, which for the past two weeks has been bothering the water consumers, is disappearing, but the company has had their chemists in town making examinations and getting more samples of the water.

A Popular Choice.

Governor Weeks made an excellent and undoubtedly a popular choice when he appointed Judge John H. Light of Norwich attorney general to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Marcus H. Holcomb. Judge Light is a very able lawyer and a progressive one.—Bristol Press.
